ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

Mrs. Charlotte Montgomery of Randolph is in a critical condition as the result of a hard cold, which at her advanced age of 96 years, she seems unable to throw off.

Writings were drawn Monday, whereby the Morristown selectmen have purchased the Brooks farm on the Laporte road. The farm will be equipped at once and the house furnished for occupancy by the first of May.

Whooping cough signs continue to be almost as common as doorknobs in Randolph, there being at present about 50 cases of the disease in town. The latest places to be decorated are the homes of Dr. F. C. Angell, W. S. S. Buck, H. S. Salisbury, Fred Smith, Rodney Black and G. A. Pearson. The law says that all cases shall be reported to the health officer, and neglect of this duty is punishable by fine.

Henry Grenyee, of Highgate Center was badly injured at Swanton Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Grenyee was crossing the bridge with a load of shingles that became loose and fell between the horses. The horses became frightened and started to run, running over Mr. Grenyee's face and hand, causing a severe bruise. Although the wagon was heavily loaded, the horses continued to run up the hill leading up Merchant Row, and would have caused more damage had they not been stopped at the top of the hill by Richard Columbo. Mr. Grenyee was immediately picked up by Watson's hack and taken to Dr. A. L. Cross' office where the bruises were dressed and Mr. Grenyee was taken home.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine E. H. Wolfe of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had kidney trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble and keep them constantly on hand since, as I find they have no equal." The Red Cross Pharmacy guarantees them at 50c.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

A PITIFUL CASE.

Mortgaged His Farm to Pay Fine for Killing Deer.

Irving Isham, who was recently fined $100 and costs in county court for illegally killing a deer, has paid his fine and has been discharged from jail. Mrs. Isham came to Montpelier from their home in St. George, the first part of this week. On Thursday she succeeded in placing a mortgage on their little home in St. George, thereby raising sufficient money to secure her husband's release. The case of the latter was unusually pitiful; when he went to court to receive his sentence it was necessary for two men to almost literally carry him from the jail to the court house. After he received sentence and was in jail waiting to raise his fine, he was confined to his bed nearly all the time and all the delicacies that Mrs. Tracy offered him failed to tempt his appetite. When his fine was paid and he left the jail, accompanied by his wife, they were as happy a pair as one often sees. Mr. Isham had the sympathy of all who came in contact with him in the jail.

Miss Florence D. Burt and Daniel Fitzgerald, both of North Pawlet, were recently married in Granville, N. Y., and are now residing with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Burt, jr. Mr. Fitzgerald is about 20 years of age, and his bride but two months over 14.

Hobart K. Whitaker, principal of the Brattleboro high school, has decided to accept his election to the position of principal of the Salem, Mass., high school. Mr. Whitaker will remain with the Brattleboro school until after graduation in June, leaving in time to begin the new school year. Mr. Whitaker has been principal of the Brattleboro high school nine years. He was graduated from Amherst College, Amherst, Mass., in 1890, was principal of the Amherst high school four years, and then passed a year each at Chicago University and Harvard University. He has been president of the Vermont Schoolmasters' Club and has a wide reputation as an educator.
